

snap, n. –

snap'·drag'·on, n. –

snap'·er, n. –

snap'·py, adj. –

snap'·shot', n. –

snare, v. –

snarl, n., v.t., v.i. –

snatch (snach), v.t. –

sneak, v. –

sneak'·ers, n.pl. –

1. an isolated observation. 2. a representation of something large in the form of a small print or slide. 3. a view captured in an instant.

“Extract and expand moments from an iconic 20th century furniture piece into public space.”

adam a. ries | adamries10@gmail.com | 419.203.5732

cavours writing desk | carlo mollino | furniture manufacturer showroom

“Introduce a unique experience
to a familiar store.
How do you rebrand
within macy’s?”

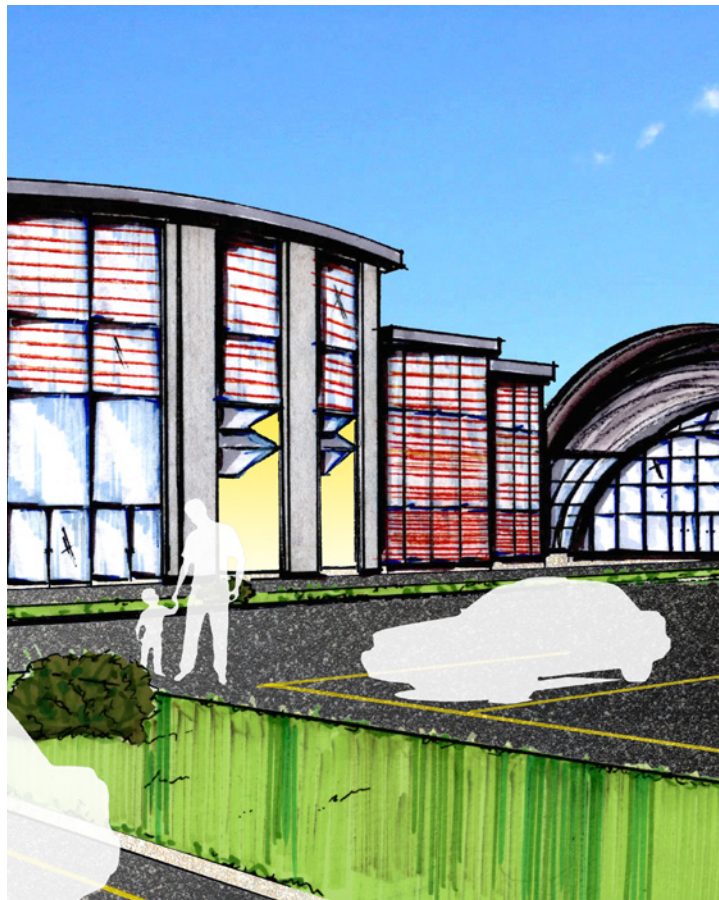

adam a. ries | adamries10@gmail.com | 419.203.5732

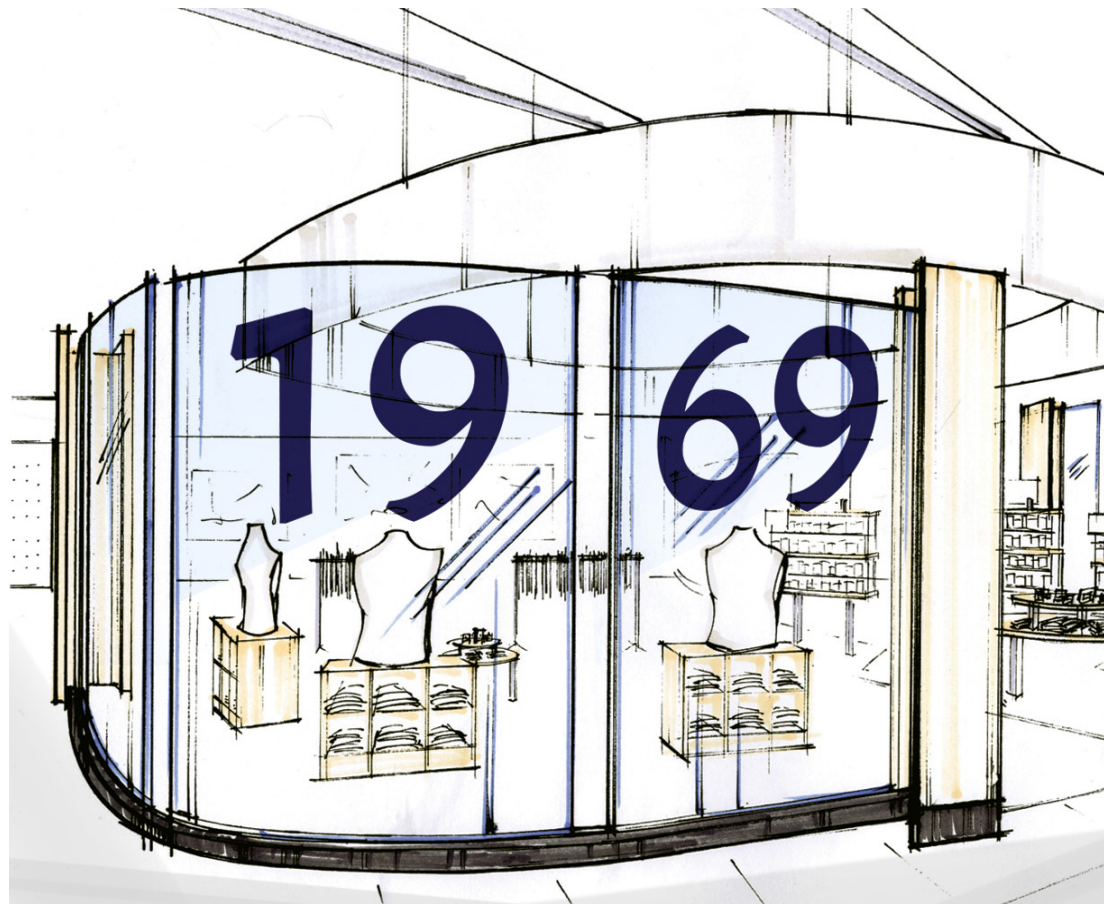

“A desolate property, abandoned and riddled with crime. Revealing the capacity for education, entertainment and grow”

adam a. ries | adamries10@gmail.com | 419.203.5732

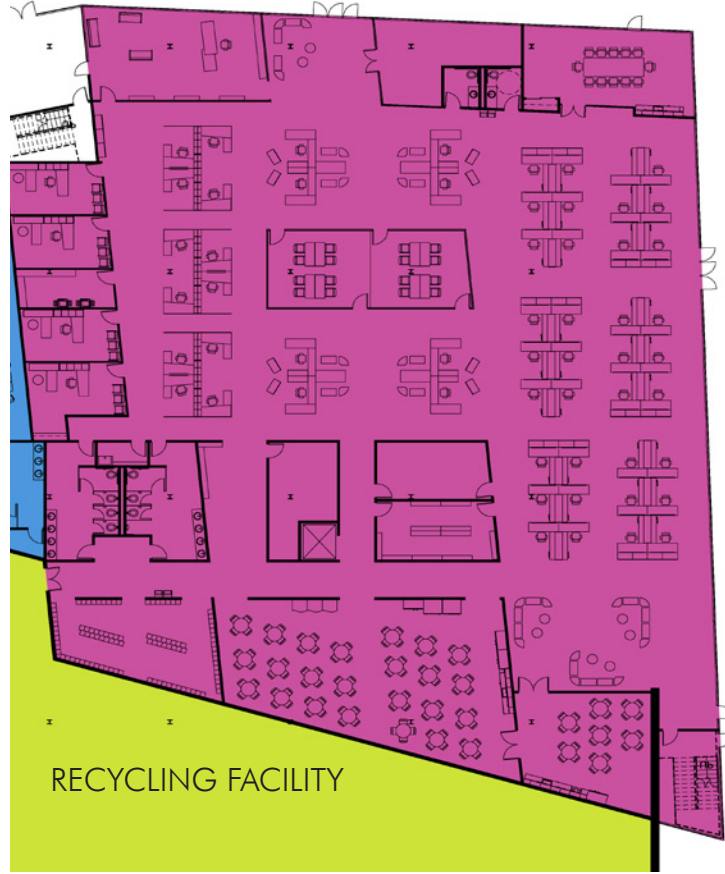

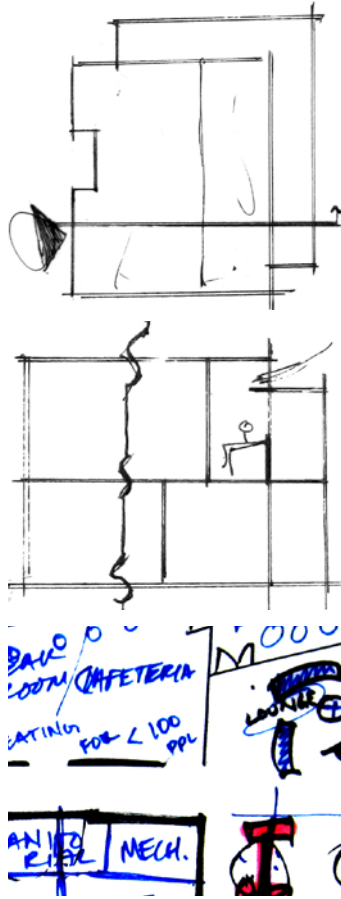

“Two different companies with two different products. A collaborative design to captivate generation y”

“From a blight and hazard within the city of Akron to a facility with the potential for international impact”

“Yard sales,
estate auctions;
Finding unwanted
items and restoring
them back into
beautiful furniture”

adam a. ries

b.a. interior design | kent state university | 2010
marketing minor

adamries10@gmail.com | 419.203.5732